

Health Care Team

- Through Your Primary Care Network •

OVERVIEW

Our Medical Clinic is part of the Vancouver Primary Care Network (PCN) and providing care in a new way. We have teamed up with other health care professionals from Vancouver Coastal Health to expand care to our patients. You are a key member of this team – the goal is to work with you to develop a plan to improve your health as best as possible.

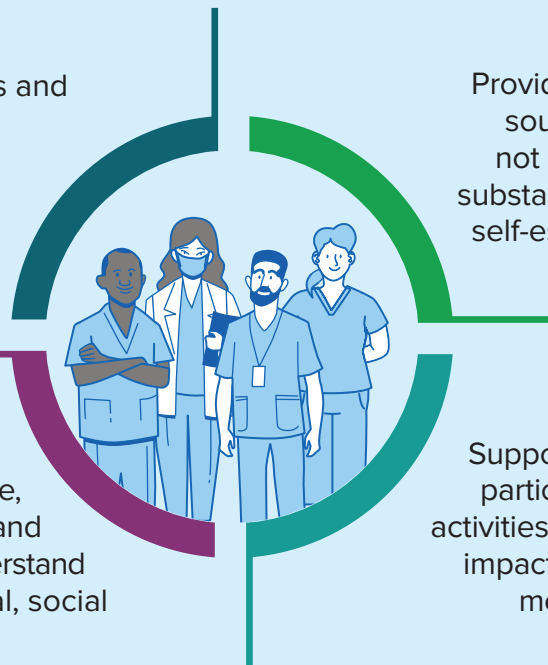

THE PCN HEALTH CARE TEAM

Dietitians

Provide nutrition care to individuals and families who require support with healthy eating strategies, health promotion/disease prevention, chronic conditions, gastrointestinal disorders, cancer, malnutrition, food allergies and many more.

Social Workers

Provide support to you and your family/caregivers throughout your care, providing information, counselling, and referral services to assist you to understand and manage medical, psychological, social and practical concerns.

Clinical Counsellors

Provide support around a variety of sources of distress, including but not limited to depression, anxiety, substance use, grief and loss, anger, self-esteem, trauma, sexual/gender identity and relationships.

Occupational Therapists

Support you to develop the skills to participate in meaningful everyday activities, when these skills have been impacted by illness, injury, disability, mental health issues, and more.

WHAT IS THE PROCESS?

REFERRAL FROM YOUR FAMILY DOCTOR

Your family doctor may refer you to the PCN Health Care Team if they believe you would benefit from the service. Your family doctor will first ask if you would like the referral to be sent.

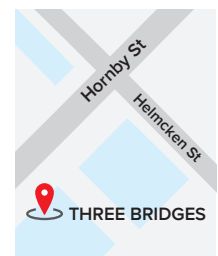

SESSIONS

The Health Care Team will provide you with care while liaising with your family doctor. Sessions may be in-person or virtual, depending on your preferences and needs.
